“ *To all of Ronald's loved ones,
I am so sorry about Ronald and it's hard to believe he's no longer with us. It's even harder to find words of comfort except to tell you that I am praying that God will comfort you as only He can and give you strength to carry on.
As a neighbor, from the time Ronald was a little boy, he was always very kind, polite, pleasant and respectful. If I needed help with something and he was around, I knew he would be happy to help in anyway he could.
I will miss him when I'm back in the neighborhood.
God Bless All of You*
