“ To Shirley Johnson & Family:

I was sadden to hear of the passing of your mom. Words cannot express the void one feels when losing their love ones, especially their mother. I know this from experience. I also know that the sorrow you are now feeling is only temporary, for the Lord has promised us "joy in the morning" and he will deliver!

Shirley, if I can be of service to you and your family, please let me know.

Your family is in our prayers.

“ Shirley,
I never met her, but I'm feeling your grief today. Please know that I care, and I'm here when you need me. She's in God's arms now.

“ I regret the news I just heard about your mother. You are a good friend of mine so I hope all goes well for you the next couple of days. I know it is hard being without our mom's. My mom is still with us, but she is very forgetful as we all sometimes are, and she repeats things four and five times. Thinking of you always, Terry Ramon.
