Rose was a longtime resident of Flint and had lived in Fenton for the last four years of her life. She was born February 14, 1925 in Detroit, Michigan; the oldest daughter of Ernest Myers and Rosa (Davenport) Holliday. She attended Flint Public Schools, graduating from Central High School, Class of 1943. On August 24, 1942, Rose married Clarence C. Campbell. This union was blessed with six children and lasted more than 65 years, until his death in 2008. Rose and Clarence loved spending time with their family at the family cottage at Shay Lake in Tuscola County and motor trips. Rose was a very accomplished seamstress and also enjoyed playing her piano. She leaves to cherish her memory: five children: daughters, Gail Williams (Charlie Bruce) of Flint, Carole (James) Williams of Ada, MI, Cheryl Campbell of Woodbridge, VA; two sons,

Clarence (Bettina) Campbell Jr. of Rankin and Robert (Wanda) Campbell of Fenton. She also leaves seven granddaughters, Dionne (Nate) Elliott, TaMara Rose Campbell, Michelle Williams, La'Tia Williams, Rhaiana Campbell, Alexis Elliott and Moneisha Campbell; seven grandsons, Terrance (Regina) Campbell, Jo'Von Rutherford, Andre Rutherford, Garrett Williams, Jonathan Campbell, Torrance Campbell, Tyler Campbell, and Jay'In Rutherford; sister, Marion Hudspeth; sisters-in-law, Essie Lattimore and Catherine Williams; she will also be remembered by a host of other relatives and friends. Mrs. Campbell was preceded in death by her husband, Clarence C. Campbell Sr.; daughter, Madeline Rose, parents, Ernest Myers and Rosa Georgia; father and mother-in-law, Hardwick and Eula Mae Campbell; sisters-in-law, Eula Dew and Abby Byars; and brother-in-law, Shed Hudspeth. The family extends special thanks to wonderful staff at Brian's House, the Med Team staff at Lockwood of Fenton, The Word of Life Christian Church family, and First Community AME Church family, Grand Rapids.

“ Rose I remember when your family brought you to Lockwood of Fenton. I remember you being so sweet and special. You told me how you got your name "Rose" because you were born on Valentine's Day. I just wanted you to know that it was an honor and a privilege knowing you. I also want to say that you have a wonderful family. My prayers and thoughts are with you all.

PS

“ To the Campbell Family: With each moment, with each hour, as you honor and remember your loved one, may memories and love cradle your heart with the gentle warmth of heaven's embrace. At this sad time when there is little anyone can do, may you know that many understanding thoughts are there with you. With deepest sympathy.
