“ Rose,
You've been like another mom to me, you've always been an amazing woman, doing anything for anyone. No matter how much time went by, when we saw each other it was like it had only been a few days. There are so many memories. 35 years worth of memories. The one you always liked to tell was when y'all lived on Eighth and Stevenson and my finger got slammed in one of your windows and my parents were gone doing errands or whatever and being that everyone knew everyone, all the neighborhood kids were just left home and parents watched out for each other's kids. You wiped my tears away and cleaned and bandaged my finger. I think I even got a popsicle out of it too.
You were and still are such a beautiful person inside and out. I would like to think that your wisdom over the years helped me be a better person somehow. You will be missed, but forever in my heart! Becky, Jody and the rest of the family. I love y'all so much and my heart breaks for your pain right now. If I could be there you know I would. Love you !!
Love you mamma Rosie XOXOXO
