Roshelle Marie Wells was born to Augustus Lee Wells and Earselene Miller on September 25th, 1963 in Flint Michigan. She graduated from Flint Northern High School in 1981. Along with being employed as a licensed Cosmetologist, you could always find her in the produce department of Meijer where she worked for 13 years. In 1991 she gave birth to her most prized possessions, her twin girls, Courtney and Whitney. Roshelle loved to cook and go grocery shopping. She was always trying new recipes from The Food Network and Pinterest. She was most famous for her dirty rice, spaghetti salad, and macaroni and cheese. She loved sports, rollercoasters, taking pictures, reading, watching television, playing video games, as well as keeping up with the many games on her phone. She was an avid music lover and collector. She was always happiest when she was together with her girls, family and friends, and caring for "my boo."

Roshelle was a beautiful woman, with a genuine spirit, a funny sense of humor, and a no-nonsense attitude. Even though life dealt her a difficult hand, she played it with tremendous strength and resiliency. She is sincerely loved by many.

Roshelle leaves to cherish her memory: 2 daughters, Courtney and Whitney Rogers; honorary grandson, Curtis "CJ" Montana Williams Jr.; mother, Earselene Miller; 5 sisters, Tracy Wells, Princess Wells, Pamela Wells, Thelma "Dede" Wells-Wallace, and Philana Wells; brother, Travis Coulter; a host of nieces and nephews; 5 aunts, Frances Miller, Bonnie Miller, Barbara Lakes, Denola Miller, and Carla Hill; uncle, Wesley (Caroline) Shumpert; a host of loving cousins as well as a host of other special relatives and friends including, Alissa Goodman, Tangie Lockett-Jacobs, Tisha Young, Kim Cavette, Kim Attyberry, Chavon Miller, Angela Miller, and special Pastor Janard Lakes. Roshelle was preceded in death by her father, Augustus Lee Wells; grandmothers, Gearldine Wells and Cordelia Hill; grandfathers, Lawrence Gus Wells and Wesley Shumpert; sister, Debra Warren; brother, Neil Wells; 4 aunts, Beatrice Shumpert, Gail Chatmon, Olliesteen Hall, and Ester Jones; 2 uncles, Charles and Eugene Shumpert.

“ Earsalene, Whitney and Courtney; I send my heartfelt condolences. I'm speechless!!! We know God does not make any mistakes. Our ways are not His ways neither are our thoughts His thoughts. Rochelle is now at peace. Her spirit lives forever. The memories you have of her will always be embedded in your thoughts and in your hearts. Family and friends are there to console you momentarily but look to God who is able to comfort you at all times during all the stages of your sorrow. Much Love!!!
