“ Rosie was one of the sweetest people I've known. I use to tell her that her mother certainly named her the right name, Rosie. We spent countless breaks together laughing, munching, and generally keeping each other spirited. She also had been my hairdresser for some years. She was such a dynamic person, rest assured Rosie was loved by all and I thank God for allowing me the opportunity to share 15 years of my life with her. May God bless and keep you.

Mable D. Jenkins - April 27, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ My prayers are with the family during this time of transition. I never saw Sister Hubbert when she didn't have a word of encouragement and a smile to give. She was one of a kind, and will be missed.

“ Rosie and I had many chats, about many things. She was one that I could confide in when things were not going so well. Rosie was a very hard worker, and I enjoyed working with her. We really enjoyed those celebrations on her birthday when she brought in all that delicious food for the whole building.

Rosie was a very giving person.

I will really miss you Rosie, may you rest in peace.
