“ I wish I could be with you all today, but I am unable to travel as I am on dialysis, and my health is not good.
May the good Lord bless each member of my family today, in this time of mourning. I am sure He is blessing Rosie, as she is in a better place now.

“ I'd like to extend my deepest sympathy to the entire family of Ms. Rose. This includes my sister, Tammy J. Fuller and my niece, DyQuesha L. Fuller. I want you all to know that Ms. Rose is no longer suffering, she has shed that ill body and is now free of all that held her down. She's enjoying her reunions with all of her loved ones that left before her. It's fine to grieve over the body that she no longer inhabits. But it will be even better to rejoice that she's smiling and singing and hanging with the angels that came to get her. When you see her in your dreams, you will see how much better and happy she is. My prayers are with you during your grief. God will see you thru these times again.
