“ My mother taught me everything I know about being a woman, a mother to my own children, a wife and a Servant. She also taught me by example how to make your walk of faith a priority. I am eternally grateful that I was able to care for her during what we now know were her last days. Because she was, I AM. I owe her everything and then some. I'm really going to miss my Girl. Love you forever Mama!!

“ I will always love and miss my wonderful mother. She was the light of my life. She kept me in church, pushed me to excell in school, encouraged me in my music ministry and my pastoral ministry, and taught me life lessons that have carried me through the toughest times of my llife. I love you mom. Rest in heaven. Your mission is complete, and your eternal reward is well deserved!
