There is a very special Relationship a Senior Pastor has with his Head Deacon it's A Bond that's very deep consoling,, transparent, accountable, and cloth in Brotherly Love For one another and the work of the ministry in The Church. It's a an ingredient that has gotten misplaced in the 21st Century Church. I thank God for this Covenant Bond that even death can not erase. Elder Keith Jones, Spokane, Wa.

“ *Hello Family,
I know most of you do not know me as your relative. My name is Richard Allen Williams from Kansas City, MO, my mother (Lillie Mae) was uncle Roy's sister. It is sad only because we will meet (one day) after his Home Going service. Our Uncle Roy was a funny guy and could find the humor in many things but he could also bring the truth to your home where you live (figuratively speaking), I admired his character. I think that his choice of attitude or his practice came from his background of experiences in his life. I would want to believe that it also came from his belief in our Lord and Savior Jesus the Christ. My wife, son and sister in Kansas City and North Little Rock will missed him. He could have a conversation with you and pull back examples that would be grounded in truth, from a place of sincerity and love with the utmost care. There are more direct words I could use to describe Uncle Roy's character but it would take more time and space than any of us have while writing this note. I have love for the family and I hope to get to know some of you and for those that I will not have the pleasure to meet. I just want you know I had good intentions to do so.*

Thank you,

Richard Williams

“ To The family of Roy Chattmon.. I'm grateful for our times together at Emerson and Northern..Roy is a Clean Cut Brother with a Ready Smile. His Track Season Junior and Senior year was cut short due to injury. Roy was a very good Sprinter in an Era when Flint had a Great Track Tradition . It was good to have talked with Roy in 2017 at our 50th Class Reunion. His Servants Heart is a Testimony of Jesus Christ being his Lord and Savior..Saints take Comfort in knowing We Shall Meet Again in God's Kingdom.. Keith Jones Class of 67'
