“ Elder Moore was a classmate from Northern's class of 1966. As a young man he was always true to himself and when he made God his father, he became what God wanted him to be - a man who loved the Lord and was able to help others grow spiritually. Sincere prayers for the family

“ RIP My Brother-My Friend. I have known Roy all my life. Through good & some bad he's always been a kind caring soul. We have had some very deep talks. I will miss him very much. My condolences to his family. His friends & family meant a lot to him. I'm so grateful I have such wonderful memories of him. He will be Missed Greatly. Although I know he's resting peacefully I selfishly wish he was still here. This is a very sad day for me. My heart is heavy. Be at Peace.
