“ I would like to offer my sympathy to the family of Mrs. Belk. I never met Mrs Belk, but from other people who have signed the guestbook, I can tell she was well loved.

I would like to offer a scripture that offers hope for our loves ones who are asleep in death. Jesus stated at John 5:28: "Do not marvel at this, the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out"

I find comfort in that scripture because it offers a hope for our dead love ones. It brings me joy to know that even in death, God has not forgotten us. Mrs. Belk has a chance to be among your family again. I hope this scripture brings you as much comfort as it has brought me.

Again, please accept my condolences.

“ Very sorry for you and your families loss Karen. Your loss is Gods gain. If your mom was everything you told me she was over the years they got a good soul up there.

“ Mrs. Belk will be missed but always remembered with love. She was beloved by all of us in the neighborhood for the exemplary way that she lived and for the elegance, dignity and grace that she displayed at all times. In her presence, we all were impelled to be our best. She inspired better behavior and more respect in some children, than was shown to their own mothers. I still don't know how she managed to care for her own family, other children entrusted to her care and ALWAYS remain runway ready any time that you saw her. Mrs. Belk will remain legendary for her beautiful garden and immaculate home. I'm forever grateful that Mr. Belk and her children shared her with all of us. Her home was a safe haven where we found peace, wisdom, laughter, advice, a good meal and lots of love. To all of the Belk family: weeping endures for a time but joy comes in the morning. It's my prayer that the cherished memories of a life well-lived will sustain all of you. All my love~C

“ Dearest Mother. I cannot begin to tell you how much you will be missed. We have been through so much together. If I had to do it all over again I would. Everyone says their mother is the best. I can truly say that God blessed us with the best. For the last three years you could not verbally express yourself but I could look into your eyes and know exactly what you were saying. You never stopped showing that Godly love that you had for everyone. I'm going to miss your beautiful smile and that sparkle in your eyes. I cry tears but they are tears of joy knowing you are in your heavenly home where there are no wheelchairs, feeding tubes and you have two healthy legs and that sweet voice of yours again. Until we meet again enjoy Mother's Day with Jesus. -Michelle

“ Michelle, Princess and Lisa I was so sorry to here about your mother, Mrs. Belk, I pray that God give you peace during this difficult time. I too lost my mother 1 yr ago on the same day that your mom (Mrs Belk) was called home. I remember coming over as a little girl playing. Mrs Belk was so kind and sweet, I remember her yard was the best looking yard in the neighborhood. Heaven has a another Angel. May God Continue to Bless and Keep you all.
