“ Rudy was my older cousin, we lived in Chicago and every year he came to my aunt's house for Christmas. Rudy came with the best gifts, like he hand picked each one. Rudy always had a welcoming presents, and cool temperament. He will be dearly missed. RIH cuz.

“ Mr. Collins was a great mentor and played a very significant role in guiding my future with just a passing suggestion. He told me that I might make good pole vaulter after a class I had with him. Fast forward to my senior year in high school I set a State and school record in the Pole Vault at Northern High School that's earned me a full scholarship to college. Thank you Mr. Collins!!

“ My memories of Rudy are full of gratitude. His welcoming spirit was comforting for those of us trying to find our way. Yeah.. Rudy was an old schooler. Dignity.. accountability..grace..a teacher whose pride in his students success was his professional legacy. I never sat in his classroom..but I learned a lot from my brother. His life lessons live and will be passed on. That's what the great professors do. RIP my friend. Yours is a purposeful life. J. Moore MD
