“ *My dearest family,
I am so saddened by the death of my loving friend and cousin, yet happy at the same time as I truly believe he is in the presence of God. Know that I am with you though not physically, and I'm praying God will give each of you peace and the strength you need to endure.
Much love,*

“ There's nobody like Jesus...

The words from an old refrain:

"Jesus knows all about our struggles, He will guide until the day is done. There's not a friend like the lowly Jesus. No, not one..."

Ann and family,

Our prayer is that the peace and comfort that come with the presence of the Holy Spirit be with you during this time of grief and for days to come.

For those we love dearly, their time with us is always too short. But God has such a merciful way of delivering them from the cares of this life. He wants you to remember that you can lean on Him when you need comfort. He also wants the family to celebrate Rudolph's life, letting the joyful memories replace the sorrow of missing him. Rudolph was a gift to you and should be cherished forever. And always remember, "Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal."

Ann, family, God bless you all.

Lovingly,

Albert & Billie Burns

“ May you find peace and comfort. Death brings about a very difficult time. Therefore, the Bible says at 1 Cor 15:26 ..." the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing". This is something fantastic to look forward to.

“ May Jehovah bless the family of Mr. MCCarthy. (John:5:28,29) encourages you to turn to Jehovah in prayer and he will give you peace. May your hearts soon be filled with wonderful memories of joyful times together as you celebrate a life well lived and may that sustain you until Gods promise is forefilled at (Acts:24:15).
