I am sorry for your loss. At such times words that truly comfort are hard to think of, the Bible has these comforting words found at PHilippians 4:6, 7. The bible can be a source of comfort. May the family keep in mind that God the hearer of prayer promise to help us through these difficult times, if you turn to him in prayer.

You can read these scriptures online at www. jw. org.

I thank God for the privilege to share this journey with my childhood buddy. We have known and kept in touch with each other since elementary school until I last spoke to you the week of your passing. We were the best of friends. I know your soul was saved by God based on the wonderful spiritual conversations we shared over the last few months. I love you but, God loves you best and may your soul rest in peace with our Heavenly Father. Until we meet again on the other side. As we always closed our conversation with Love You Man!
