“ Hi Everyone...Hi Cousin Billie,

I know I have not seen you guys in over 30+ years and I am sorry that I just found out of Auntie's passing. I don't care how long it has been I still have very sweet, fond, and precious memories of Auntie when I was young and we were living on McClellan Street with Grandpa. She still looks the same, I remember combing and playing in her beautiful hair. I remember her playing with me on the back porch and walking with me to the store, and us attending the temple. Her picture reminds me so much of Granddaddy (A.W).....take care and know that she is resting in peace with the Lord and looking down on all of us...REST in Peace AUNTIE.....!
