Her presence was a comfort and strength she blessed our lives in so many ways through the selfless service she gave and as we remember the gift of her life. All the ways she cared for our family we honor her love and her sacrifice. A dedication that was clear for all to see as children we knew we could count on her. For she helped us all the time from making sure the homework was done, our bellies was filled with good home cooked food and most of all just being mom. Mother had a fun sense of humor. She loved the holidays the good aromas coming from the kitchen, lights and decorations all over the house her traditions lent a meaningful touch. For she was determined to make these times special, building memories for the family she loved and we knew how very blessed we were to have such a wonderful mother. "Even conversing with Mother was a blessing for her perspective we knew we could trust. More than a mother, she was our counselor and friend Who patiently listened and guided each of us..."There is so much that our Mother meant to us Only in our family can her true influence be known For she loved us with all her soul...throughout a lifetime.
