“ To my childhood friends from Austin Street. I can't even begin to express my deepest sympathy to you, Ruthann's Husband and children. I will cherish the wonderful childhood memories we had of playing, laughing and sharing meals as we were all one big Austin Street family. I thank God for being lucky and blessed enough to carry those memories with me. Jacinda, know that your mom is in you. Remember, I saw you at your work place, and the minute I seen you I said that looks like Ruthann baby girl Jacinda:)

Her mighty spirit is instilled in you.

God bless you all.

“ We were sorry to hear of your love one passing. Our Prayers and Love are with you and family. Rely on "the God of all comfort." "Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself and he himself will sustain you." Psalm 55:22. It is real and vital communication with the " God of all comfort, who comfort us in our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3.4.Psalms 83:18. We look forward to seeing our love one again. Psalms 37:29. May these scriptures bring comfort to your heart as they have mine in time of sadness.

“ There are no words that can be said to ease some or any of the pain of which you're feeling...but if by chance I can be of any comfort to your or any your family, please don't hesitate to ask...I'll try to be there without crowding. It gives me comfort in knowing that God will take you through this.

“ To the kids and family, I am truly sorry to hear about Ruthann's death. Although we haven't seen or heard from each other in years, I often look back to our days in the hood, running up and down Austin Ave jump roping, playing double-dutch, hop-scotch or just sitting around laughing and talking. It's sad to know one of my childhood friends has passed on. Thank God our memories live on forever. God bless and keep you.

“ I havent worked with Ruthann in a couple of years, but when I did she was always upbeat and happy, it was a pleasure to visit her office. She was always quick with a smile and a "Hey Lori how are ya?". She could make a persons day by just flashing that smile. She will be missed.

“ To the family and friends of Ruthann, our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Ruthann, was one of the warmest, and a very good friend to have in your life. We will always remember her determination to achieve and accomplish goals she set in her life; her weight loss (WAY TO GO RUTHANN), and to just see her smile as she walked by you or beside you. She will be sadly missed by myself, Diana, and Loretta, part of her Hurley family.

“ Our condolences go out to you and your family. We are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Often during these difficult times people turn to the bible. A couple of scriptures that come to mind are Revelation 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope these verses are a comfort to you.
