“ My deepest condolences to the Brown-Hare Family. Ruthie was a dear friend. She never failed to come visit my mother, Gladys Jackson, and me whenever she came home to Rosedale, MS. We would sit and talk for hours, trying to catch up on what has been going on in our lives since we last met. She was caring and kind; yet outspoken and direct. She meant what she said, and said what she meant! I am going to miss her. Rest my sister in Christ. See you on that "gettin' up morning"!
