I graduated from Southwestern Academy with Sakeala. She always had a smile on her face. Even in recent years i would run into her after she was one of our "guest" at Hurley, and even though she wasn't always feeling well, she still had that bright smile. To her entire family my thoughts and prayers are with you. Just know that she is no longer in pain and she is in perfect health with our Heavenly Father. God bless you all.

Sakeala I will miss you very much. The last conversation we had was so nice, and I felt badly for what you were going through. It makes me feel better to know that you are with the Lord now, and not suffering any more. I will miss your smiling face every time you came in to the hospital. You never complained. You are a true warrior, and may God bless you and your family at this difficult time. No more pain nor tears for you to endure. Alleuia!! Rest in Jesus now my friend. Your picture looks so beautiful. I remember when you showed me your wedding pictures! God bless you in your transition to be with Him. Victoria Webster, RN HMC

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.

“ Dear Wade Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.
