“ My dear sister, Sam. Words cannot express what I am feeling right now. I'm lost. You will be remembered by the beautiful memories I have spending time and talking to you. You took good care as a child and guiding me as an adult. Yeah, you fussed me out many times, but the good times outweighed all of that. I loved you and I still do. I miss you already; your lil sis, Kay.

“ All I can say is that you left way too soon. Thanks to you, Quan has become a young woman. Starting from the first day you came over and laid on her, your exact words were "She's Mine" & "She's My Baby". Everyone that has known or met you knows how very dedicated, committed, and patient and loving to her you were. If I haven't told you enough I truly thank you for EVERYTHING you have done. Also I am so very grateful that her life was blessed with you in it. You were the one that was there when I myself could or couldn't be. Either it was a weekend pickup when you had the day off work, till she moved with you and including when she got on me and your last nerves when she became a teenager, and to the young adult years, YOU were there. No matter what the situation was Quan could call her "GRANNY". Her famous words "MY GRANNY". She has always and forever will truly cherish and love you unconditionally. All she keeps saying is this is unreal and a part of her is gone as her world is over. The main thing I can honestly say is how dedicated and loving to your family you was. Yes, sometimes you fussed, but your love and dedication outweighed it all. This world as well as Da'Quandra has been truly blessed with your presence. Once again I say Thank You. I truly hope you are now pain free and happy being reunited with Rod and your daughter. Heaven has gained another angel when you arrived. Mrs. Samaster Robertson, may you rest in the arms of the Lord and be at peace. You have truly left too soon.

“ I would like to offer my sincerest condolence on Samaster Robertson's death. No matter when a love one leaves they are gone too soon. Death separates family members resulting in deep sorrow.

The loving memories of him will help during this critical time. Please accept my sentiments. Even the strong may weep under the weight of grief. Yet, God is willing to give you the necessary wisdom and strength for healing. Jesus wept when he lost his dear friend. Yet, he said, "do not let your heart be troubled". (John 14:27) He said: "I am the resurrection and the life". (John 11:25)

So despite the pain of grief, never give up. Let it be your resolve to continue to work your way through your sorrow and mourning.

I did not know Samaster Robertson personally. I read his obituary. May you find comfort and peace.
