“I sent you back home to teach you how to lead the children of God.”

Superintendent Sammie Lee Hall, affectionately known as “Papa Hall” was a man of unshakeable integrity and divine vision, was called to be with the Lord on February 3, 2026. A visionary servant leader, a master builder of both cathedrals, character, and a devoted shepherd to the city of Flint, transitioned from labor to reward. He left behind a legacy as vast as the kingdom he served. Born on November 6, 1939 in Warren, Arkansas, to Sam Hall and Bessie Ann Wilson. Sammie was raised in a close-knit family anchored in love and faith.

A Divine Foundation

At age 19, inspired by his lifelong best friend Charles Booker; Sammie was led to Christ and received the Baptism of the Holy Ghost which ignited his journey with the Lord. Under the mentorship of Pastor L.C. Cook at Powerhouse Church of God In Christ (C.O.G.I.C) the two friends grew in grace together, eventually both becoming Pastors. He was very dedicated to church, serving in many capacities including; Sunday school teacher, YPWW president, choir president, and a member of the usher board, He was a man of such unimpeachable integrity that parents trusted him implicitly with their children, knowing they were safe in his godly care. His path to leadership was one of profound obedience. While studying auto mechanics in Dumas, Arkansas, the Lord interrupted his plans with a thunderous command: "GO HOME!" Though Sammie initially resisted the call to lead, God's voice prevailed, telling him: "I sent you back home to teach you how to lead the children of God."

A Visionary in Flint

Following a second divine mandate to "GO TO FLINT," Pastor Hall moved his family to Michigan. After serving faithfully at Hamilton Avenue COGIC under Elder Fred Lewis, he answered the call to pastorate. From a humble beginning on Stone Street, Pastor Hall set a revolutionary tone: "I do not intend to pastor an all-white or all-black church." Thus, he became a pioneer of multicultural worship in the Flint area, proving that the love of God knows no racial boundaries. Pastor Hall broke barriers by declaring his church a home for all people, establishing one of Flint's first diverse C.O.G.I.C. congregations. His ministry was dedicated to "inclusiveness."

As the ministry grew from Trinity Temple to Higher Dimensions Ministries (HDM), so did Pastor Hall's vision. He possessed a unique "gift of beautification," transforming every sanctuary he touched into a stunning place of worship. A lover of construction and a student of the Word, he built a ministry that established a deaf ministry, a library, an activity center for youth, and programs for emerging authors. He was a man who loved to read and ensured his congregation had the tools to grow both intellectually and spiritually.

"Family is forever."

Papa Hall's love extended far beyond the pulpit. He was a beloved husband, father, grandfather, friend, and uncle who took great pride in his family. He was previously married to Ermalean (Kendrick) Hall for thirty-five years. From that union, they were blessed with five beautiful children. He cherished family time, especially learning about his grandchildren. Papa Hall loved gathering the family together at the church, Old Country Buffet, or Golden Corral. He faithfully attended school and scholastic events to support his grandchildren, taking great joy in being present for their achievements. To his grandchildren, he was "Papa Hall"—the steady hand and the humorous heart.

Pastor Hall later married the love of his life and soulmate, JoAnn Sue Markee-Hall. For twenty-six years, their union was a testament to devotion and endless love. JoAnn was more than a wife; she was his best friend and his constant protector, providing exceptional, tender care for him until his very last breath.

He leaves to cherish his memory his devoted wife, JoAnn Markee-Hall; his sons, Samuel (RaShonda) Hall III, Bobby Hall, and Michael Hall; and his beloved "baby girl," Patricia (Sean) Hall-Richmond. He is also survived by his younger brother, Bobby (Carol) Hall; his favorite niece, Toni Walker; sister-in-law Jane (Paul) Lee; and his bonus daughter, loyal friend and secretary, Louella Jamerson.

His legacy flourishes through 24 grandchildren Victoria (Alan), Ariana, LaShauna, Desmond, Samuel IV, Jasmine Marie, Christa, Kayla, Calvin, Samantha (Levi), Taylor, Dequandre, Atiya, Darwin, Mikaya, Jasmine Michele, Corinne, Bobby Jr, Lauren, Jordan (Celina), Amber, Sage, Madison, and Selah; 16 great-grandchildren Kwame, Aiden, Amir, Ali'ana, Sincere, Kobe, Trevon, Savannah, Kaiden, Samuel V, London, Jade, Dylan, Ka'Moni, Luca, Terry III, each of whom carries a spark of his wisdom and humor. Papa Hall's legacy will live on through a host of other relatives, friends and church family. Pastor Hall was preceded in death by his parents; his siblings Josephine Hall, David Summers, JW Summers, Christine McDonald, and his "favorite sister" Bessie Mae-Davis; his son, David (Sharee) Hall; and beloved church members; Paula Patrick, Yvette Harris, and Mary Smith.

The family extends their deepest gratitude to Supt. Eric C. Bogan and the Harris Memorial C.O.G.I.C. family, Moon's Funeral Home, and the compassionate staff at Compassus Home Health—especially Greg, whose kindness exceeded every expectation. Pastor Sammie Hall was our "Concerned Pastor" until the very end. His presence is irreplaceable. We celebrate a man of integrity whose humor brightened our days and whose wisdom anchored our souls. Well, done, good and faithful servant.
