“ One of my most precious uncle receiving his wings it's so hard to believe his journey has ended. I am grateful for the opportunity God allowed us to get closer together the last couple of years. I am going to miss our regular conversation about how great God was to him by continuously keeping him during his illness. Our hearts will be heavy because of his absence. There's really no words to truly express the feeling of the loss of a loved one -however to his wonderful wife and his children-I pray God will strengthen you daily as you travel this journey without him. We all loved him much and waiting to meet him again!!!
