“ *Dear Sanders Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is fresh, even with the passage of much time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress. (Psalms83:18, Psalms65:2) Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again. (Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace. (Phillipians4:7)*

*It was an honor to know Mr. Sam, he was one of our old quartet followers every Monday night for years. He would call in and give a shout out and let us know he was abroad the quartet train until he was unable to he loved quartet music. Well he's singing in the heavenly choir now, he not gone he's just away, waiting to meet us on that great getting up day. Live your life right so you can see him again one day, for he's not gone he's just away,
