“ My deepest condolences to family members and friends of Sam, an Ambassador for Christ.

I have the fondest memories of my Mom, Christeen Watkins Young, waking us for church on Sunday mornings by turning on the intercom to our bedrooms. Our cousin Sam, the VOICE of WAMM radio, was playing inspirational Christian music for his thousands of radio listeners to begin their day. I would eagerly wait for the song to finish to hear his uniquely rich, deep voice announce the artist, say words of inspiration and encouragement to his listeners, and then proceed to his next selection on his playlist.

I will always remember this integral part he played, unknowingly, in our family's Sunday morning routine. We all looked forward to the family reunions and visits to his home during the years. His voice and words of inspiration will be with us always. We are praying for his wife and children during this time of bereavement.

Sincerely,

“Sweet Sam the Candyman” as we knew him was a big part of the high school experience of many of the students who attended one of the Parochial schools in the Flint area. Mr. Williams was the Dee Jay at most, if not all, of our high school dances in the 60s. Everyone remembers him from when he played Motown at the Wednesday night dances held at Sacred Heart ‘s during the summers and his WAMM days. The kids all loved him and are saddened by his passing. We were planning to honor him at our All Parochial Reunion in June 2020 to express our appreciation for the role he played in all of our lives and what he meant to us. He certainly was a great role model for us. We wish the Williams family peace and comfort during this very difficult time. I am attaching some photos of the Candy Man at our dances.

“ I was sorry to learn yesterday about the passing of Sam Williams. I arrived in Flint in 1965 and had the honor of working with Sam at the Main Post Office in Flint for 6 years. I got to know him well and had many conversations with him during that period. The Brothers Club, which was made up of 9 members from the Flint Post Office loved Sam, and we adopted him as one of us, He always volunteered to be our MC at our annual Scholarship Balls. Sam was a great person, and me and my family always enjoyed listening to him on our way to Foss Avenue Baptist Church each Sunday morning. Sam was truly placed here on earth to Glorify God. We pray for his entire family at this special time. May God continue to Bless and Keep each of you. Attorney Hewitt & Dornell Chatman, Plant City, Florida.

“ Our sincere condolences and prayers to the Williams Family. Our hearts are so sad right now. Some months ago we saw Mr & Mrs Williams at the Golden Coral, we were so glad to see him. Our families grew up listening to Mr Williams on Sunday Mornings. We shared so many memories along with our Grand children. We introduced them to him. It was so awesome. RIP Mr. Williams. We all loved you. He was our local radio celebrity from our childhood. Every Sunday Morning my Mother would turn the radio up sky high. I have continued that tradition down through the years. We have really been missing him on the radio lately, even calling the station to find out what was going on. We are asking God to Strengthen Mrs Williams and the Family.

“ To family of Mr. Sam Williams you have my prayers during this difficult time. I grew -up listening to Sam from WAMM to WDZZ. I first met Sam in person at the post office ,he was my trainer , then he became my supervisor and my station manger. Over the years when we would see each other you would always have a smile and kind words Rest In Heaven my friend.

“ Sending my deepest sympathy and prayers to the family and friends.

I will forever cherish your Sunday gospel program. Oh how wonderful it was. Each time I needed a spiritual uplifting song you play it as though I had asked you personally.

I thank you for all the great memories and kind words you spoke with love. Thank you and may your soul rest in eternal peace.

“ To the Family of Mr. Sam Williams: You have my prayers and condolences.

The Legendary Mr. Sam Williams was an institution in our community and will be greatly missed. When I was a youngster, Mr. Williams' WAMM radio handle was "Sweet Sam, The Candy Man" (I think I got that correct). When he would announce an artist, he would say, "Come on in..." As a kid, I thought the artist was actually in the room at the radio station!

I grew up listening to Mr. Williams play the hits and Sunday gospel on WDZZ. He always had something for everyone from teens to the seasoned listeners, contemporary and traditional. Most importantly, he used the music he played to send a message. He was truly an example of staying on the battlefield, doing what God called him to do. Years ago, I sent him a letter thanking him for his radio ministry and I attended a tribute for him at the Whiting. God has called him from labor to reward. Well done! RIP Mr. Williams.

Mr. Williams has always been a Professional Radio Announcer dedicated to the love of music. He found his true calling as a Gospel Announcer on Sunday mornings if you was thinking about missing church his music message would force you to get up and get dressed.

He was a true christian to serve all of the listeners that he touched for so many years. The family has my condolences and thank you for allowing Mr. Sam Williams to share his gift with so many. God Bless !
