Beatrice, My heart, as well as yours, is broken again, our Too-loo is no longer with us. I just read the paper and found out. May it comfort you to know she was such a sweet child, all the way to adulthood when I saw her last. I loved her and will never forget her. We shall pray now for your peace and the pain I know you are enduring. No words or deeds can remove it, but the Lord will, in His own time. So please ask Him to help you " one day at a time, dear Jesus."

“ No more suffering, No more crying. Sandra, though I will truly miss you, I am filled with joy that you are on your way to receiving your crown. Our God makes no mistakes, and though I weep, I will not question Him. I will continue to give our Father, all the glory, honor and praise for allowing you the gift of Salvation, that now you are able to live eternal life with Him. To be absent from the body, is to be present with The Lord.

Our last conversation was at Macy's last summer. We shared a hug and laughed about our Bank One days; which brought back fond memories. Sandra was a great person then and I'm sure she was till the end. Bless the family and I will say a special prayer for you all.
