“ Wow! I had tried to find Sandy through the years. He was an absolute treasure. I met him in Herndon, Virginia waaaayyyy back in the day. I was sitting her thinking of him and thought I'd try to find him. To my dismay, I came across this entry. His smile was still the same. I could hear that infectious laugh of his. What a beautiful light.

“ Dear Big Brother,

It has been a year since you left us and despite the passing of time our hearts still hurt and feel empty because you are no longer here to make us laugh and smile. I know you are having a good ole time, but we are truly missing you. I haven't forgotten your final wish. I'm working on it. You might have to help me out a little though. LOL.

I Love You and will Miss You forever and ever.

Love Always,

Your Baby Sister, Melodie

“ My deepest heartfelt sympathy to the Turner Family. I was deeply hurt when I heard the news of Sandy's passing. He knew I loved him. Whenever I came home I always found where Sandy was. Our last meeting is when we all gathered over my brother's house. Sandy just cried because most of his neighborhood childhood friends were there. I have the pictures. When we were little we would fight like cats and dogs and be outside later making mud pies. Later in life we hung out in high school. I remember I hadnt seen him in a while and he caught me coming out of Northern, that day we partied and even made up a rap song off Request Line. He had me laughing so hard that I was crying. That's what we used to do, so I will remember how we listened to our loud music and made each other laugh. I always had a good time with my dear friend. RIP, Love u Sandy!!!

“ To the family, I am so very sorry to here of Sandy passing. Sandy was a very close friend and spoke to him often. My friend suffered alot but I am glad he will suffer no more. Sandy was my angel, he would be there for me whenever I needed him. He would always make sure my hair was together, the last time I was home a had mircos he put them up so pretty. God I will truly miss him. eventhough I didnt come much, we would stay on the phone on the good days. Mrs Betty I love you abd just know Sandy is in a better place, I love you and will always check on you and bring you ice cream. your just like my other family. you will continue to be in my prayers. I love you so much Sandy.

“ Ms Betty, thank you for sharing Sandy with so many of us. He brought joy and happiness to those who didn't even want to smile. He would pull you off the street and sit you in his chair if that hair wasn't right. I feel so blessed to have had him in my life. On days that even I didn't think I could pull it off, he would give me that extra boost. That was my Tuda, to the end. He was a true friend. If he crossed your path then you were bless and touched by a real person. Rest in peace, Sandy
