“ My dear sweet niece has been a beckon of light every since she was born it's as if she had been here before. As a child she was stronger than most adults she was fearless and kept a smile on her face the same way she did as she was in battle with cancer she looked it the face and was never afraid. She will be missed but I'm so glad God allowed me to get to know and love her while she was here with us and her light with continue to shine around the universe she touched every heart that she ever encountered. So baby let your wings spread as you fly higher than an eagle and help guide me home one day. May God bless my family and may these words be planted in her children's heart as a memory of God's greatest angels that we got to love for a short while but one day we shall meet again in heaven Amen 🙏🕊️🕊️🕊️💕💕

“ I send my love and condolences to my extended family, the Wilson's. I haven't seen "Toya" (what we called her for short) in many years. What a beautiful spirit! I especially send my hugs and condolences to Toya's mother and my twin brother from another mother, Llewellyn Wilson. I love all of you.

“ To The Wilson FAM’:

My heart is deeply saddened after hearing the news of Toya’s passing. My heart hurts for u’all. I am happy to know that she’s in no more pain. And I Thank God that she trusted me to watch “Man-Man & Mooker”, when they were little.

They have grown to be 2 of the Most Mannerable Young Adults ever & she was SO PROUD of U! I’m PRAYING FOR U’ALL. ❤️ U! 🙏
