“ Aunt Sarah oh how much I will miss you, the long talks , the laughs, comparison of outfits hats, shoes. The way you laughed and smiled just lit up the room. The way you made me feel like I could do anything in the world meant everything to me, your love that you showed me, my family and what it takes to have a strong loving marriage . I'm sure now you are so excited to see my number 1 uncle and also my mom and dad
The clan is back together ,but most importantly you all are in the arms of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I cry for you only because I can no longer talk to you but I rejoice because I know you are where you want to be.

*I love you Aunt Sarah

I am sorry for your loss. At such times words that truly comfort are hard to think of, the bible has these comforting words found at PHilippians 4:6, 7. The bible can be a source of comfort. May the family keep in mind that God the hearer of prayer promise to help through these difficult times, if you turn to him in prayer.
