Sarah Became the faithful wife of the late Homer Winfrey and proud mother of two sons, Homer Winfrey and Xavier (Angela) Winfrey and was also the proud grandmother of Ivyonna McQuarter-Winfrey and Xavier Winfrey, Jr. Sarah was employed at Chevrolet Truck and Bus, a division of General Motors, but believed in education moving forth to empower, improve and better herself. She became a self employed Home Healthcare Provider. Sarah enjoyed life and lived to bring life to everyone she met. Sarah loved being with her family and took pride in celebrating the lives of her loved ones. Sarah had many joys in life; spending time with her children and grand-children, late nights with her sisters, family gatherings, good food, music, movies, concerts, plays, baking, a good game of pool, chess, a good book or conversation. Sarah was the kind of woman that did a great deal of thinking and often reached out to others. She would always call to say "I'm just checking in to see if your o.k." Sarah was a woman of many wonders, with a mind full of wisdom, a heart full of gold, and strong as steel. She carried the weight of the world on her shoulders; she kept pride and honor in her daily work, her daily walk with love, devotion and dedication in everything she did.

“ To the family of Mrs. Sara Dolores Winfrey, My sincere prayers and condolences are with you during this difficult time.

I didn't know, Mrs. Winfrey, personally as many others, however, what I did know of her in our greetings, she was a courteous, kind, amiable, and personable woman. Very devoted, faithful and zealous to her calling in life.

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

“ My Deepest Condolences to the Winfrey Family and Friends: It is very hard to lose a cherished loved one, the heartache and grief can be great. Thankfully our "Most High God and Heavenly Father" is the "Hearer of Prayer" (Psalm 65:2) and a tremendous source of comfort. He assures us at Isaiah 25:8 that soon death will be "swallowed up forever and tears wiped from all faces." And we have the opportunity to embrace our dear loved one again as promised at John 5:28,29. May this wonderful hope and your treasured memories of Mrs. Winfrey keep you strong and be a salve to your broken hearts.
