“ Bob, Marva and Grandsons, I was saddened by the news of Seandra. She was such a beautiful person both inside & out and her presence will be greatly missed! Our families go way back, I remember Seandra as a young girl and Granny taking care of her while you both worked. I'm praying that God with give you strength during this time. Love you all!

“ My memories of her stretch over many years. Watching her grow from a young girl into a woman. She had courage and strength. Grace and style permeated from her and embraced everyone she came in contact with. I especially enjoyed our conversations about music and she was well versed on the subject well beyond her years. I'll miss her and I'm so glad she passed through my life. Marva, Robert and her family you will remain in my prayers and I know she has received a crown of life. Bravo Sandra you showed us how to live by facing life head on. Rest on and we will see You in the morning.

“Wow.....Sissy I know you're in a better place and I know God has healed you completely. We asked, believed, & He did exactly what He promised to do...OH death where is your sting....Ohhh grave where is your victory because the Father has gained another Angel. Sissy I'm really trying to hold it together.....but this hurts & I can't fake it. I get it & I understand that as a Christian I'm obligated to CELEBRATE your Life & Legacy....but the truth is right NOW I just wanna cry....It's never goodbye....it's I'll see you later Yo Sista Girl Fo LIFE XOXOX

Marva & Bob and Seandra beautiful children and husband. Know that God is able, and that he is close to them with broken hearts. She was a wonderful woman who loved God. She lived her life as Christ instructed her to. Today she wouldn't trade her journey for nothing in this world. I love you all, continue to seek the face of God.
