“ My heart goes out to Sebastian's family... I would say his nick name, but out of respect, I will call him by his birth name(smile). We worked together for some years, and I really enjoyed his company... not to mention he is my husband's cousin (Sterling Hatter), and he always had my back... when management would come down on me. I will miss him, but I look forward to the scripture at Revelation 21:4 - a sure promise that will come true. Love you all!

“ Well what can I say about the way Boo-Boo use to make me mind by giving me that stern look when I was a child.

About how he taught me how to play dominoes just to beat the crap out of me everytime! Ugggggg! LOL!

About how I use to spend the night at him and Lavern's house when they stayed on Van Wagoner.

About how we use to cruise around Flint in his white Monte Carlo.

What can I say.....? I can say that I love you Boo-Boo and I will miss your smile with those dimples, and that funny looking birth mark you had on the right side of your face by your ear. I can say that I will miss dancing with you. I can say that I enjoyed being with you cuz, and I am happy for you that the suffering is over now. Rest on cuz.....rest on.
