“ Erica, you have my heart felt sympathy. Pray to God and he will give you all the strength that you need God said, in His word He will be a mother for the motherless. Remember all the good times that you shared with your mom. Look the the author and the finisher of your faith which is in Christ Jesus. You know that your mom was a good mom to you and she did what she could do for you. I will always remember her. She would tell people that I was her goddaughter. You had a very sweet and lovable mom. I can still remember all the times that she was there for me. Know that you can depend on me.
