“ To The Family of Mrs. Riley:

Mrs. Riley was my 3rd grade school teacher whom I adored. She was such a classy lady and she always acknowledged me as her little girl even when I became older. I remember always going to her home playing with her kids when I was young and the loved she shared with them and with me. My heart is broken knowing that my former 3rd grade school teacher has passed away. I will greatly miss her and I know she is smiling down on her kids and grand kids. May God comfort you during this difficult time. I will keep the family in prayer.

“ LaGretta Sandy and Melvin, truly my prayers are with you. Your mother was a wonderful mother, woman, and teacher. I can remember so many memories of her as we were growing up. May the peace which comes from the memories of love shared, comfort you now and in the days ahead.
The comfort of God help you during this difficult time. Words seem inadequate to express the sadness we feel. And no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in my every thoughts and prayers.

“ Mrs. Riley was a wonderful educator and a beautiful spirit. I worked with her for approximately 15 years and she became my mentor. She was a quiet storm! Her committment to excellence in educating children will always be remembered. I called her foxy brown! She the same caring person everytime I saw her. She always shared with me her love for her children and grandchildren. I use to tell her, "Mrs. Riley when I grow up I'm gonna be just like you". She would laugh and say, "Naw, I'm gone be like you". I would often say Mrs. Riley you trying to get a boyfriend cause you looking to good to just be coming to work". She would always say, "Aww these old clothes, nobody don't want no old lady like me". Mrs. Riley will always be in my thoughts. My prayers are with the family as I know this is a TREMENDOUS loss. Mrs. Riley was my hero.

For we are aware that there are no words that can truly comfort you at this time, so we commend you to the only wise God, who is able to heal your hearts and keep you in perfect peace.
