Mrs. Sharee Joanaa' Moore was born on October 19, 1971 in Flint, MI, the daughter of Earl Sisco and the late Janice Gaila Graham. The oldest of three children, Sharee was baptized as a teenager at Bluebell Beach by her great uncle, the late Rev. Charles Knight, in Flint, MI. She graduated from Beecher Adult High School in 1991. In 1996, Sharee and her sweetheart, Jeffery married and continued raising their family. Sharee had a great appreciation of art which was reflected in her profound love of music, singing, and writing poetry. She was also an avid reader but more than anything Sharee loved spending quality time with her beloved husband, Jeff and their 3 beautiful children. Sharee also shared a special bond with her younger brothers, Donyale and Jamel. Family and friends fondly remember Sharee's special way of ending a call, it was always, "I love you" and "May the Lord watch between me and thee while we're apart one from another."

Mrs. Sharee Joanaa' Moore leaves to cherish her memory: loving husband of 19 years, Jeffery Moore; daughter, Janae Moore; 2 sons, Jeffery Jr. and Jorell, all of Flint; father, Earl Sisco of Atlanta, GA; grandmother, Mrs. Nana Mae Graham of Flint; 2 brothers, Donyale (Toni) Sisco of Fairburn, GA and Jamel Garner of Flint; 2 step-sisters, Heidi Norfleet and Nakia Sisco; sister-in-law, Lawana Jarrett, 2 brothers-in-law, Willie Moore Jr. and Duane Coleman; a host of other aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends including special friends, Patricia Nettles, the Howard family, Betty Nelson, Leonard Nelson, Tiki Gray, and the Bundy St. family.

“ God is love and that's what my sister Sharee represented. She was loving, caring, and family oriented women; I was blessed to have known her. The love she embodied resonated to everyone she came in contact with. She was always filled with hugs, kisses, and "I love you's." That was Sharee! We are now left with those memories.

To Jeff and the kids, I pray for comfort and strength. May God be with each of you. She's resting now.
