“ *Hi My Little Girl,
I miss you terribly. Am grateful for the wonderful times and talks we shared. We were immediate best friend from the first moment; a true sisterhood. I'd kiddingly say you were a sassy girl or bossy girl just for fun and you'd laugh. So many experiences. I will never every forget our lovely friendship.
Always,
Sue xoxo*

“ Even though we did not know your loved one personally, we are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.

“ Dear Zwe'na,
Just because you might feel like you can't bear this, the loss of your mother, please remember "God (Jehovah) is faithful and he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. (1 Corinthians 10:13)He knows your pain because he felt it when his son, Jesus was put to death. But just like He resurrected his son, He will awaken your loved ones from death according to the Bible. Read it for yourself in the book of John 5:28,29. And receive the comfort that only God's word can give. Christian Love, Joyce S.
