“ To the family of Sis. Sharlene...

She made a great impact on those who came in contact with her. I will always cherish the fun we had on our many church outings. Sharlene was truly dedicated in the cause for Christ. I am happy to be an extended part of her wonderful family.

“ Cleon, Eric and family I was sad to hear about the loss of your mother and sister. I cannot even imagine what you are going through. We all use to hang around so tough and Cleon I just wanted to let you know that I am proud of you on becoming a youth minister. I will keep you all in my prayers for strength in your time of need. God bless you all.

“ To Cleon and Ahamad:
We know that you have lost the most important person whom have birthed you onto the earth, but God said suffer no more my dear child Sharlene you are in my hands now. I am the creator and you are the beautiful flower that I have picked from the earth to bring to my heavenly home. Suffer no more my dear child, for to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. We love you and you are in our prayers. Keep your heads up, because God will take care of you in your time of sorrow. May God Bless you and keep you in your time of bereavement.

“ To the woodward family. You all have my deepest sympathy during your time of sadness. I met sharlene through my late husband David Copeland a few years ago. She was a very caring and sweet person. Know family that her pain and suffering is over. She is gone to a better place. Take comfort in knowing God makes no mistakes. Sharlene is free. May God bless and keep you all in his comfort. Sincerely Sandra Copeland and family.

“ To: The Woodward family ,it is always difficult to say what you feel especially when all you feel like doing is crying but I have found comfort in, John 14,1-3

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

“ God knew he had a beautiful rose when he made you. I know God wanted his angel back home with him. May your family take comfort with God in this time of need.

I think I was blessed to have some one like you apart of my life. You have inspired me through out my journey. I only hope I too can have the same impact on a young lady like you did for me.

God bless and keep you safe,

Tyana

“ To the family of Sharlene, I've known her now for 18 years after coming to recovery in 1989 she always inspired me when I was early in recovery, and until this day she still inspired me. We all in Saginaw who knew her will truly miss her. Psalms 30:5 WEEPING MAY ENDURE FOR A NIGHT BUT JOY COMETH IN THE MORNING.

“ Sharlene will truly be missed but she will not be forgotten for her light will shine within our heart. Nothing is harder than losing someone you love. Though we can't feel your pain, we do share your sorrow. Take strength in your memories, and have faith in tomorrow.
