“ *To Keomi and family,
I did not have the pleasure of knowing Sharonel personally, I wanted to offer my condolences for you and your family having to unfortunately having to experience the great bitter taste of our greatest enemy ever, death. There are so many unanswered questions behind this tragedy. If God is a God of love, why would he allow such a beautiful person to die? There are answers. To start look at how God feels about death. Isaiah 25:8 says that he will swallow up death. Then Revelation 21:4 shows the hope for those that have passed away. If you have any further questions that you would like answered, please take the time to look at the official website of www.jw.org.*

“ Stephanie and Family, The Southall Family wanted you to know that you have our deepest sympathy on Yaki's passing. She will always be Yaki to me and mom, it was a pleasure to have had her as a student and when she was accepted to Talladega we did a dance together. I was so happy to have reconnected with her and so proud that she had started teaching. She will truly be missed but never forgotten.

“ To the Payton and Williams families, I don't have to tell you what a special person Sharonel was. She made some of the most unbearable situations bearable because of her sense of humor and capacity to care. I enjoyed teaching with her and still smile because of some of the things I remember her saying or doing. She will be missed. I pray that God carries you through this time and brings you to a place of peace. She is now in the midst of paradise.
