“ Dear Sheila,

I should have told you in your living years, but it was an honor to be your friend. You were a true friend. Whenever we saw each other, we just picked up where we left off and started catching up. Thank you for your friendship from childhood until your passing. Rest and enjoy your new home. Say hello to Sherry, Patricia, and of course, Bro. Moore and my good friend Sis. Gladys. If you see my parents and my sister Dorothy, tell them I miss them. Going to miss you too. Praying for your family and Sheena can call me whenever she needs me.

“ My dearest Shelia it has taken me some time to accept this. My heart is broken. My red sister has taken her flight home; I love you. My mind went back to my childhood and your room of everthing read and white. Red Faygo everywhere which was so cool. And a red and white wedding was to come later. I wore a red dress too. Your cake was sooo good and it was the very first time that I had ever had wedding cake; I was thrilled. It was a special day. (I think that may have been the day I fell in love with parties.) My big sister got married. I was so happy and excited that day. You always used to take me places and drove really really fast especially in that red Beretta. I will always miss and love you and your infectous love, smile, and laughter. Little kids know when they are loved and that is what I felt when I was around you. You were always you nothing more nothing less. In this world that is not common. You were most like Godmama. I remember when Godmama passed and I cried and cried and I asked your Hunny who was going to look after Pattie; Godmama went everyday at 4:00. Your Hunny said you were going to go and I stopped crying. When Patti passed you asked me did I remember her and I told you "of course 4:00" and you smiled and said yup. Enjoy your new shoes, new home, and new crown; I WILL see you again. Tell Hunny, Godmama, and Goddaddy I said hello.

To my beloved God family I am so very sorry. I morn with you. I pray with and for you. I am sorry not to be of much help or comfort to you right now. I am truely undone. Please know I love you all truly and dearly. Sheree, Sheena, Doren and Imani you all have my deepest condolences. I think of you often and pray for you. May God mend your broken hearts. Kenny, Barb, Billy, and Nita I love you guys. I have been divinly blessed to be part of your family.

Our condolences to the Bates and Moore Families, all of the 12th Street Church of God members, New Creation Church of God, GM employees, and all others for whom Shelia touched their lives. We all miss her, she was a bright, glowing light in a sometimes dark world. To know Shelia was to love Shelia. Our prayers are with Ree and CoCo. God selected you both to have a wonderful mom in Shelia. She will always be with you. Love to you both...
