“ Mom I miss you so much I wish I could bring you back to life I still cant believe your gone to this day I'm still in disbelief it just feels like you went on vacation and I'm still waiting on you to come home. I'm hurt that you'll never get to hold your grandchild she's 1 now and so beautiful she looks just like you sometimes she looks like me but I see mostly you when I look at her. My heart is healing slowly I guess that's normal sometimes I try to dream of you holding and kissing her its sad I know you would have loved her so much thank you for teaching me right from wrong and how to raise a child its had doing this on my own but if u can do it I know I can I will never give on my dreams and I will never break that promise I made you before you took your last breath. I love you mom please continue to watch over us we still need you and always will.

love, cyrhocia your middle child
