“ We are so sorry about the loss of Sheldon. Our deepest sympathy and condolences are with the Golden and Bright family. My father always spoke very highly of the "Golden Boys". Since Sheldon, Raymond, and Kenny were childhood friends of our older brothers, we always looked up to them as our older brothers. This is hurting all of us very badly. We will always remember Sheldon's genuine and cool personality. He was loved by so many and will definitely be missed. We will continue to keep your family in our prayers. Soon we will not have to worry about losing our loved ones in death anymore!

Please accept my deepest condolences for your loss of Sheldon who I affectionately called "MR. GOLDEN".
What a Gentleman!!! Truly A Man's Man. I enjoyed the privilege of knowing Sheldon for many years, and sharing Bible Truths with him which was such a Joy. Words cannot even begin to express the sorrow and sadness I feel over Sheldon's passing. However, the Bible's promise is that those who have died will live again. May All of you find Comfort by the God of Comfort, along with the outpouring of Love & Prayers surrounding you.

“ Sheldon,
If I could paint a picture of us, it would be you, and I am horseback riding in the ocean across a beautiful island—the sun above us and the sand below. If I could paint a picture, I would make sure to get your smile. Because over the decades of knowing you, your smile has yet to fade. The seasons have changed, our relationship has changed, but my love for you still remains. If I could paint a picture, here on the earth as my best friend is where you would be, but since I can not paint this picture without you, then in my heart, you will forever remain.
Gone home but never forgotten.
