“ Scoomie will be missed, I have so many wonderful memories that the Lord took away my tears to celebrate his home going. To my sister Evelyn, Shelton and Tressla may the Lord strength you during this time. What I love about our family we know the Lord, and he is our strength. And I know that God will keep all of you. From the little suits you use to put on him Evelyn to man he became, is truly a blessing to me. Tressla remember when I see you I will always see Scoomie and Shelton I will always see him in you too! Evelyn you are a great mother, and I know God will see you thru, love your sister Marie
