Reverend Shirley Biggers was a resident of Romeo, Michigan for many years. She assisted her husband the Reverend Charles Biggers, as an Assistant Pastor, Sunday School Teacher, and Ministry worker. In doing so, she worked at the Montrose Community Church of God in Montrose, Michigan. Reverend Biggers also assisted in churches in Jackson, Flint, Benton Harbor, Muskegon Heights, Grand Rapids, and Romeo, Michigan. Shirley obtained her degree in Ministry and Christian Counseling from Faith Evangelistic Christian School. She loved working with Children, in which she had a passion before her marriage by working with Sister, Reverend Tucker with Boys Club and Girls Club that she formed in her own home for the neighborhood. Shirley also worked with Brother and Sister Foster with Children Ministry for years. She continued the Bible Vacation School with Romeo Church of God, by working with kids on Arts and Crafts, dancing, singing and running around, which she did so well. Shirley was well known for her sock monkeys that she gave away constantly to make people smile.

“ She loved to cook and make delicious deserts. She would get her grandchildren in the kitchen and bake. She would hold the babies and sing and dance to make them laugh. She was full of energy.

“ *The Tinsley Family, send our love, thoughts and prayers to Diana Williams, Jacob Williams and the "Biggers Boys". Rev. Shirley Biggers was very instrumental in teaching the unconditional love of Jesus to our entire family. We shall forever remember her energy, her ability to quote scripture and verse, but most of all her love of children, and the ability of making learning about Jesus Christ fun.
