“ I had the pleasure of working with Shirley as her job placement coordinator at G.M., since 2013. Shirley was one of the best people I ever worked with, Kind and giving and a hard worker. She came into my office one day when I was stressed out with work, and she took me out into the hallway and sang a church song to me--No ONE ever did that before! Shirley was very special and cared about everyone! She will be missed. Sending prayers for her family and friends. <https://youtu.be/0n67dSG35L4>

“ My whole heart goes out to the family of Shirley Horton, the friend of my heart and will always love. I first met her as one of her "assignments" but we shared so many life similarities that we fastly became the best of friends. She called me Maya and I called her Fruitty. So much can be said about this wonderful Godly woman and there truly is not enough space to do it all but personally, she cannot be replaced in my life. She has left an indelible imprint on my life and a mandate to continue on her legacy of love, i will do my best for she left huge shoes to fill!!! Fruitty, love you always, Rest on, It is not goodbye, it is merely "see you later".

“ I would like to express to the Horton family my sincere condolences, especially her two sons. This extraordinary woman of God was my co-worker at GM, my neighbor and thankful to say my friend. Although I only knew Shirley for 11yrs, it only took one encounter with her to know that my life would never be the same. I was one of her many assignments that God placed on her life and through many phone conversations, much prayer and time spent I can say that I am an assignment that she fulfilled to God's specifications. I love and miss her already! If you were one of her assignments I encourage you to post in her honor and share how she blessed your life!

“ When I met Miss Shirley about 1 1/2 years ago I was going through some personal problems. She held me, prayed for me, supported me and loved me like no other. At that time I couldn't tell you the last time I had been to church. Since then I am learning to serve and am on the Youth Board at my church. My church is my happy place. She once told me "I've shown you the way but you have to do the work." I will forever be thankful that God blessed me allowing me to have her in my life. Our last conversation she told me how proud of me & the changes I've made in my life and always a "I love you". To soon to say goodbye and my heart hurts but I know she is sharing her beautiful voice with our Lord and would say not to be sad. She changed my life.

Shirley Horton!! What a Outstanding Woman of God. I worked with Shirley Almost 19 years at Venture/ Vemco. We had many good times at work. When I was going through some rough time's she would sing You can Make it! She required me to learn the word's to this song so I could minister to myself and others A True Woman of God! Praying for you Earl and Anthony. Know that she was loved by Many.

I have to tell this story.... I met Shirley Horton about 49 years ago. We started a pop group in Flint, Michigan of 3 girls, Nelsenor, Shirley & Lil Shirley, called the Gems and won many talent shows around the Flint, Detroit Metro areas and sang at colleges, etc. On one occasion when we performed as the intro act on a show starring the O'Jay's, they agreed to take us along on tour. However, the God in Shirley told her this was not the life she wanted to live and we had to say no! As time went on and we all moved away to other cities, I heard she had become an Evangelist for God. I appreciated her stance and loved her for her Godliness. Me and Shirley Witherspoon will always remember the times we spent together as special singing sisters who had a blend like no other. We love you Lil Shirley, we were BFF's and will always remember and love you!!
