“ I was so saddened to hear that Sondra had passed away. Such a beautiful homegoing for a beautiful person. Sondra always had that big beautiful smile on her face. Such a joy to be around when she entered the Salon. I’ve known Sondra when she was getting her hair done at Robinson’s on Carpenters Rd. She was always the same. “ To the Dennis, Malone and Roach families, I send much Love and condolences. As a young girl growing up in the 60's, I looked up to Sondra as that cool 'big sis' I never had. I now wished I had afforded myself the opportunity in telling her that any one of many years. It is said that "Silence is Golden", but what I'm learning is 'silence sometimes comes with much regret. Feel something, say something!!!
