Flint Park Blvd. and may be viewed from 12 p.m.-8 p.m. Friday, with the family present from 6 p.m.-8 p.m.

Ms. Sophronia "Fronie" Wilson was born on October 30, 1949 in Flint, Michigan, the daughter of Orlandus and Annie (Balknight) Wilson. Fronie was a Flint resident, and member of Ebenezer Ministries where she participated in the Missionary Society, the C.K Travelers and a member of the Senior Usher Board. Fronie reached her third year with Bible Study Fellowship International. She was involved with the University Park Sub-Division Home Owners Association as well as the NAACP. She was a huge sponsor of students and parents at Carpenter Road Elementary School, both financially and emotionally. Sophronia had an affinity with seniors, she cared for many and grew to love them and they loved her. She was a superb cook known especially for her pound cake. She had a very special friend who she cared for deeply, her dog named Maxwell Smart Barney. She spent numerous hours with him and loved him dearly.

Ms. Wilson leaves to cherish her memory: father who raised her, John Hubbard of Flint; 2 sisters, Venisure Davenport of Grand Blanc, MI and Belinda Craig of Arlington, TX; brother, Forest Chester Stocker of Flint; many nieces including Hope Veasley; many nephews including Ondra Stocker; numerous cousins including Doretha Breed and Rosie Wilson; a host of other relatives and friends including special friends Gwen Barney, Mable McGowen Bell, Pam Gaines, and Deloris Odom.

Ms. Wilson was preceded in death by: mother, Annie Hubbard; father, Orlandus Wilson; 2 sisters, Maxine Veasley and Clara Taylor; and brother, James E. Stocker.

“ To my beloved egyptianette sister Northern High School Class of 1967 Fronie Wilson. As I try to find the words to say it feels as though a rib bone has been removed from all of our bodies. Losing you our dear friend and sister of more than 50 years the hurt and pain will never go away. Knowing you are now with mom and feeling no more sickness or pain makes it easier to say take your rest you deserve it .

“ To the family of ‘Fronie’: Although Fronie and I had limited contact since 1967 I’ve always considered her a blessing in my life. Even at a young age she brought love and calmness into everything she touched. Fronie, you will be missed. 1 Corinthians 13:4-7 shows us the love that she had “4 Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; 5 does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; 6 does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; 7 bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.”

“ I only new Fronie for a very short time and the last time i saw her, she was looking forward to hearing about a trip i took. and i come back to hear that she has taken a trip herself. If i believe in the father i know and love, she is on the best trip everlasting. and if she is on the trip of her dreams i am glad i met her when i did. I only had the pleasure of meeting her and sharing a laugh or three. my heart goes out to the family and God Bless! Tumica Hopkins

The sudden loss of My dear friend and Co-Worker, Fronie to us all was a shock to us all. Please know you are not alone as you face the daunting path of grief and mourning. We cannot remove the heartache you're suffering but we can surround you with love and support, every step of the way. Ms. Sophronia "Fronie" Wilson, My Sister, My Friend, Heaven wait for You..... To: The Family of Ms. Wilson: No more crying She won't be alone, Her Mother is up there waiting, for Her child to come home, I'm so sorry, She had to leave you here. But if you knew where she was going, You wouldn't share another tear, She traded Mortal for Immortality, Goes to get her some Wings. Wish you could see Her, Don't share another Tears, But what every you do, Try to make it up There, Glory To God, Thank-You Father. You Shall Always be In My Prayer. Love You Dec. and the Whole Family

Sophronia will be missed dearly, a recent conversation with her on how she was enjoying her retirement and travel. She was a good hearted, loving person that loved Jesus. Just always know that she may not be here with us, she is certainly with her Heavenly Father. May The Lord comfort the family for such a time as this. Remember God will wipe away all tears and give us peace that passes all understanding.
