“ To lose a loved one so soon is hard to deal with because we are never ready for it to happen. But notice what happened to a friend of Jesus Christ. The friend had died four days before, but his dear friend Jesus Christ had waited four days before going to him. When he got there and saw the family and friends crying over their loss. The Bible in the eleventh chapter of John says that Jesus gave way to tears. Next, he told his deceased friend, “Lazarus, come out!” The dear friend had been in the memorial tomb for almost a week, came out wrapped with cloth. “Jesus said to them: ‘Free him and let him go.’ And they did so. But how does that affect our future loved ones? Earlier, before raising his friend back to life Jesus said about the future that awaits us. Note what verses at John 11:25, 26 says: “Jesus said to her: “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; 26 and everyone who is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all. Do you believe this?” Isn’t that remarkable that we can see them again! Even more remarkable is the verse which says that some “will never die at all.” Did you notice what we have to do? Our savior said in those verse and in other ones that we have to: “exercise faith in him.” But how do we do that? We have to have a Bible Study with someone who comes to you door.

“ To the Mushatt Family:

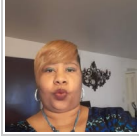

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious gift of life that leads to death.

However, have you ever asked: Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? The bible clear up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have faith.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*
