“ There aren't too many more things as grievous and distressing to the human spirit than the loss of a loved one because of the enemy? Death. However, please take comfort, according to the Bible, soon death will be no more. When you have a moment to meditate on God's word the Bible, please read, Isaiah 25:8, Romans 5:12, Revelation 20:14, Revelation 21:3,4. Jesus gave this comforting assurance to mankind: "The hour is coming, and it is now, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who have given heed will live...Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...." John 5: 25-28. So there is a resurrection hope for Steven.

The provision of a resurrection hope for human families is indeed an undeserved kindness of Jehovah God, for he was not obligated to provide a resurrection after Adam and Eve sinned. But He did. Love for the world of mankind moved him to give his only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ; so that millions, yes, even thousands of millions, who have died without a real knowledge of God, might have opportunity to know and love Him.

Please take comfort knowing that God is love...1John 4:8. He wants you to be happy. He knows that the resurrection of our dead loved ones is essential to our happiness and to the undoing of all the harm and suffering that have come upon our families. We grieve with you today and yet we know, and please rest assured, that Steven is in Jehovah God's memory. There will be happier times soon because of this resurrection hope .
