“ It’s been almost 11 years since you gained your wings since we last seen your handsome face heard your voice seen you roll your eyes touched your body in the physical it’s been a rough journey without you you meant so much to each one of us in your own way you were special hated to see you suffering and never wanted to see you go. A lot changed after we loss you then more and more changed as we continue to lose our live ones and to be honest some of ourselves we never imagined life without you Dad uncle Ronnie it was all too much for us we were all we had and as we started losing chains that we needed to help hold us together it became too much to bear but thank GOD for never leaving us and for being a restorer in due time we will be back together again as a family until then keep watching over us you granddad and uncle Ronnie y’all our Angels. Keep smiling down on us I bet that smile is still the biggest! I love you beyond the skies

“ Hi Nephew yo TT miss you so much everytime i think of you i cry like the lost of you would never fade away 😭 i miss you so much Chunk i think of you & hurt like you was my own child but it's just the fact that i was always around we were very close when you was here 💔 the lost of you and the separation with uncle Ricco have gotten the best of our family it's like we're not even family anymore 😭 i know in some areas it's growth but most is lack of communication between everyone but regardless of all that if your watching down on all of us you already see it and what's more importantly no one forgotten about you idk who talks to you but you know i do but i know you hear our talks whenever we all get together you left some permitted memories for a reason so you'll never be forgotten 🐸🚲😊🍝🍬

“ hey bestie / fav cousin ... i swear I think about how my life would be so different if you were here 💔. The memories we could have made . But I had to learn that life still goes on & that I can't wish that you was here just have to make you proud ... I miss you so much words can't even explain ... it's like everybody got that one person close to them in the family but me ..because you were took from me .💔 it eats at me everyday ... thinking about how I'll graduate without you ... we was supposed to do it together ...but you left me . Would've been selfish to ask god to keep you seeing you go through all that pain . Wish you would've stayed for me . 😞 I need you I swear . I have little memories here and there and I cry because we didn't get to do all the things we planned together ... writing this with tears down my face because I would've never imagined living life without my bestfriend . life been hard lately sometimes I wanna give up but knowing that I'm making you proud pushes me more everyday ... I love you and I miss you so much .. save a spot for me next to you ... I hope your having fun in heaven and tell grandad I love him too ... i miss you and watch over me . 😞💔!!
