“ Hi Aunt Tammy it's been 4 yrs since you left this world. I hope your traveling and seeing all the beautiful sites you never had a chance to see, while here on earth. I miss you so much. You had a quiet spirit, but a strong presence. Always correcting my grammar :) You'll never know the impact you had on my life. You leaving has taught me to stop waiting and just do, because tomorrow is not promised. I can't care about what others think, I just need to make myself happy and the rest will fall in place.

I love you and hope you are looking down smiling at me.

“ To the Family,

I would like to express my deepest sympathy to each of you.

If a man die, shall he live again? asked the man Job long ago. (Job 14:14) How would you feel if you knew that a reunion with your loved ones was possible right here on earth under the best of conditions?

God is the giver of life. He hates and views death as an enemy.(1 Corinthians 15:26) He has a longing to conquer that enemy, to undo death by means of the resurrection. He yearns to bring back those who are in his memory and to see them live on earth again. (Job 14:14)
