“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. It is difficult to receive the comfort we search for. In times like these, we can find comfort in God's word. In John 5:28,29 He tells us " Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." As the God and Father of tender mercies, He wants you to find comfort in Him through prayer (2 Cor 1:3)

“ My heart was sad when I received the news of the passing of Tania. Our last conversation was me asking her to learn a song. Her excitement and response was I can't wait. That day never came. I'm only 5'2 , so whenever Tania would see me she would get on her knees, put her arms around me and hug/hold me. Her words were always I love you so much. I'm going to miss the hugs, the occasional text, the beautiful voice but most of all the genuine love of Tania Green. Praying for the family, friends and Refuge Temple church family. Love Odelia
